RIBERA Y RUEDA

Ancient traditions shape contemporary winemaking in Ribera y Rueda, but it's most likely a place where few outsiders will venture, even if the region produces some of the most amazing wines.

Nestled in the high plains of Castilla y León in northern Spain, the regions of Ribera del Duero y Rueda have unusual beauty. Ribera del Duero's Tempranillo grapes survive scorching summers and frigid winters to produce bold red wines with depth and structure. While in Rueda, the rocky soils nourish Verdejo grapes that produce herbaceous, aromatic whites.

Verdejo is a very old white wine grape that was supposedly brought into the region over 1000 years ago before the Moorish rule of Iberia. Verdejo, is all about agriculture. Grapes are harvested using modern techniques as well as by hand depending on the slope of the vineyards, and all grapes are harvested at night because of the hot temperatures.

Ribera del Duero is home to the most exclusive red wines in Spain coveted by collectors the world over. The vines struggle in extreme temperature shifts, upwards of 40 degrees per day and high altitudes. Over a third of the vines are over 45 years old, with an additional 10% of vines 80+ years old. The result, Tempranillo grapes are smaller berries with thicker skins, darker color and acidity resulting in more complex wines.

BODEGAS SHAYA HABIS OLD VINES VERDEJO 2017
Sourced from the oldest Verdejo estate vineyards, some over 95 years old, planted at 2,300 feet in sandy pebbled soils which lend a marked minerality and highly aromatic quality to the wine. Extremely low yields on these vines lead to Verdejo with superior aromatic and flavor concentration. The vines are dry farmed, without the use of pesticides or herbicides, and are hand-harvested. This wine is fermented and aged in large neutral French oak barrels for 7 months. Golden color w/ bold aromas of ripe pears, peaches and notes of lemon peel. Pronounced minerality from the old vines and toasted notes from the oak aging make this Verdejo truly spectacular. 100% Old-Vine Verdejo.

Velvety and elegant in the mouth with ripe tannins. The acidity blends in perfectly with reminiscence of vanilla, cinnamon, toffee, cocoa, tobacco and exquisite flavors of clean leather. 100% Tempranillo
