BELGIAN BOTTLES

DE CAM • Oude Lambiek (2003) ⚡
Aged in vats that are over 100 years old. It is a blend of unpasteurized 3-year old lambics specifically selected by brewer Karel Goddeau. It is a still lambic, and should be enjoyed similar to a fine white wine. It is a prized rare & spontaneously fermented ale.
5% 750mL $40

OUD BEERSEL • Bzart Lambiek (2013) ⚡
The "Lambiek Oud Beersel" that was used has matured during thirteen moons in old wooden barrels in Oud Beersel's cellars. This lambic is bottled and then the "Méthode Classique" (Classic Method) is applied during another thirteen moons. This means that after adding sugar and a sparkling wine yeast, the "liqueur de tirage", this lambic is re-fermented. Carbon dioxide develops and is locked in the bottle which causes the lambic to become effervescent. Other intrinsical steps, such as the "remuage" (riddling) and the "dégorgement" (disgorging) follow, which eventually lead to a sparkling, refined beverage.
8% 750mL $40

3 FONTEINEN • Cask Finish Series: Cognac No. 51 (Season 23/24) ⚡
Small batch blend of three lambics aged on cognac barrels for more than twenty months. The lambic originates from five different brews of which more than 60% was brewed w/ local Pajottenland cereals. As most lambics have been brewed in 2020, the weighted average age of this blend is over 46 months. The barrels come from a small scale, independent cognac distillery from the Charente region, France, & is renowned for their focus on terroir & quality. Bottled 6/11/2024
8.62% 750mL $100

3 FONTEINEN • Tuverbol ⚡

3 FONTEINEN

Beersel Lager
A tribute to Armand Debelder's love of Franconian Kellerbier. Every year Armand would make a pilgrimage to Bamberg & its surrounds to drink local lager. Eventually the idea set in that he could brew a local alternative to mass-produced pilsner to be poured at the 3 Fonteinen restaurant. A full-bodied, unfiltered, unpasteurized, cereal-forward homage brewed to Armand's original recipe.
5.2% 33cL $12

Oude Druivenlambik Muscat D'Alsace ⚡
Macerated organic Muscat d'Alsace grapes aged on young and two-year old lambik for more than seven months. The grapes were sourced from Domaine Christian Binner in Ammerschwir, in the heart of the beautiful Alsace region. All cereals are sourced in Pajottenland. The lambikken originate from three different barrels & eleven different brews. The final fruit intensity is 290 grams of very pungent & sugar-dense grapes per liter of noble druivenlambik.
7.4% 25cL $15

Tribute to Armand (2019) ⚡
In the autumn of 2019 the brewery bought a brand new foudre, w/ a handmade engraving of the iconic picture of Gaston & Armand, raising a glass of geuze. It was the team's gift for Armand's 68th birthday. The special foundre was presented to him that same December. Little did they know that it would be Armand's last visit. When the fouder arrived, it was immediately filled with four brews from late November 2019. It was brewed with Pajottenland cereals only just as Armand once envisioned. Seven years later the beer has been kegged as a toast to what would have been Armand's 75th birthday.
